

Respect in Sport Parent Program

The Respect in Sport Parent Program is an effective and informative online training program for parents of active children. This unique certification program compliments Respect in Sport for Coaches/Activity Leaders by reinforcing a parents role in a child or youth's activities, encouraging positive sport behaviours, and providing insight into the various roles other individuals (such as coaches and officials) play. This program empowers parents to ensure the safety of their children, encourage positive and effective communication, and to enhance a child's fun and camaraderie of the activity.

Program Elements

1. Canada's only on-line training program designed to help parents become even better Sport Parents
2. One hour of on-line, bilingual content, allowing users to progress at their own convenience

Why should your sport organization implement the Respect in Sport Parent Program?

1. It further ensures your commitment to your number 1 priority: safety for participants
2. It enhances communication between parents and organization staff, coaches, officials, etc
3. It helps your organization, staff and volunteers to mitigate liability
4. It provides parents supplementary knowledge about preparing a young athlete for practices, games and other activities
5. Helps to retain recreation leaders, coaches, officials and volunteers
6. It makes a values based statement on behalf of your organization to ALL stakeholders

The number 1 reason cited for coaches, managers and officials of all ages leaving a sport is unacceptable parent behaviour. Let the Respect in Sport Parent Program help assert proper parent behaviours to create a more rewarding, safe and respectful environment for all parties involved.

Respect in Sport Parent Program for NOHA - Registration and Re-Access Information

Website for Program: <https://nohaparent.respectgroupinc.com>

Registration Information:

- Once at the site, the default language is English. Click the link "Francais" to convert registration to French
- Select "Register a New User"
- If you have previously certified in the Respect in Sport Parent program, enter your existing certification number in the box provided and select Check. Once your profile has been found and loaded, complete the registration and select Submit.
- If you have not certified in the Respect in Sport Parent program previously, complete the displayed registration fields. All fields marked with a red X are mandatory.
- For Username and Password, you may select any entries you wish however spaces may not be included in the entries. Respect Group Inc. recommends using your email address for the username as this is always unique to a single individual. Please note these fields are case sensitive, and on re-entry, must be entered exactly as during registration.
- Click Submit to complete registration.
- You will next be requested to connect your child/children to your profile. This is very important to ensure you and your child both receive credit for your completion of the Respect in Sport Parent Program. Failure to enter your child's information during this step may inhibit your child from participating in the sport or event. Children's names should be entered in the same way they have been provided to your hockey organization. For example, if your Child is registered as Michael for NOHA, he must be entered using the name Michael in this program.
- Add your child's/children's first name, last name and date of birth, gender and association and then select "Add Another Child" or "No Further Children to Add". Complete the process as many times as you need to. You will now be redirected in to the program.
- Select the appropriate language button to access the program instructions and content.

Re-Access:

- Return to the website address above (same address as for registration)
- Enter your username and password in the selection boxes indicated (username and password are case sensitive)
